2pm-5pm Virginia Megaprojects Tour

Officials from the Virginia Department of Transportation (VDOT) will lead a bus tour of major transportation projects under construction in the Commonwealth of Virginia. The officials will greet guests between 1:30 and 2 at the Phoenix Park Hotel. A Chariots for Hire shuttle bus will depart promptly at 2 from in front of the hotel. The bus will travel I-295 into Maryland and then over the Woodrow Wilson Bridge into Virginia with a scheduled stop at recently renovated Jones Point Park, which was part of a beautification effort associated with construction of the new bridge. The tour will continue through the Springfield Interchange and along I-495, where High Occupancy Toll (HOT) Express Lanes are currently under construction, one of the largest public-private partnership-financed projects in the country. The bus will make a stop at the Westpark Drive Bridge to give tour attendees a view of the project. Finally, the tour will wind its way through Tysons Corner to assess progress on the project to extend Metrorail to Dulles Airport. The bus will take the George Washington Parkway back to the District and drop attendees off at the Phoenix Park Hotel.
