

CSG's 5th Annual Transportation Leaders Policy Academy
May 11-13, 2015
Washington, DC

---

Monday May 11

1:30-4:30pm – Transportation Tour of Northern Virginia megaprojects and facilities hosted by Virginia Department of Transportation

Attendees will board the bus at the Phoenix Park Hotel (520 North Capitol St., NW). Tour will highlight the I-95 and I-495 Express Lane projects, Virginia's approach to public-private partnerships and transit-oriented development in the Tysons Corner area as part of the Silver Line Metrorail extension. It will also include a stop at the North American corporate headquarters of toll road developer Transurban in Alexandria, Virginia.

Tour guides: Mike Salmon, Virginia Megaprojects Public Outreach
Christian Deschauer, Transurban Government Relations Director
Marcia McCallister, Dulles Corridor Metrorail Project

4:30pm – Return to Hotel

6:30-8:30pm – Opening Dinner & Keynote Address

Location: Phoenix Park Hotel, 520 North Capitol St., NW, Georgian Room, 2nd Floor

Keynote Speaker: Pete Rahn, Maryland Secretary of Transportation

Tuesday May 12

7:30am – Breakfast – Phoenix Park Hotel – Georgian Room

8:00-11:45am Transportation Policy Roundtable

8:00-8:30am State of U.S. Infrastructure & Cost to Repair

Speaker: Brian Pallasch, American Society of Civil Engineers

8:30-9:00am Status of Federal & State Transportation Funding

Speaker: Joung Lee, American Association of State Highway & Transportation Officials

9:00-10:00am Transportation Investment & the Economy

Speakers: Janet Kavinoky, U.S. Chamber of Commerce
Pat Thomas, UPS/American Trucking Associations

10:00-10:15am MORNING BREAK

10:15am-11:45 Future of the Federal-State-Local Partnership on Transportation

Speakers: James Corless, Transportation for America
Emil Frankel, Eno Center for Transportation
Joshua Schank, Eno Center for Transportation

12:00-1:30pm – Luncheon at the American Society of Civil Engineers

Location: ASCE Washington Office – 101 Constitution Ave., NW Suite 375

Topic: ASCE’s forthcoming IMAX movie “Dream Big” (2017)

Speaker: Aaron Castelo, ASCE Director of State & Local Government Relations

2pm – Big 7 Transportation Briefing

The Big 7 are the seven national organizations including CSG that represent state and local officials.

Location: 2253 Rayburn House Office Building

Speakers: Sen. Mike Vehle (R-SD), CSG Transportation Public Policy Committee Co-Chair

Council Member Riki Hokama, Maui County, Hawaii, National Association of Counties President

Council Member Michael Wojcik, Rochester, Minnesota, representing the National League of Cities

Moderator: David Adkins, Executive Director, The Council of State Governments

4pm – Listening Session at U.S. Department of Transportation,

1200 New Jersey Ave., SE, West Building, Main Floor, Conference Room 4

Speakers: Dana Gresham, Assistant Secretary for Governmental Affairs, USDOT

Carlos Monje, Assistant Secretary for Transportation Policy, USDOT

5:30pm – Return to Hotel

6:30-8:30pm – Infrastructure Dinner at Bobby Van’s Steakhouse, 809 15th St., NW

Keynote Speakers: Rob Healy, American Public Transportation Association

Pete Ruane, American Road & Transportation Builders Association

Wednesday May 13

7:30-8:30am Breakfast Briefing - Location: Phoenix Park Hotel, Georgian Room

Topic: Update on Mileage-Based User Fees

Speaker: Barbara Rohde, Mileage-Based User Fee Alliance

9:00-10:00am Infrastructure Week Advocacy Day Kick-Off and Press Event (arrive by 8:45)

Location: Senate Swamp, 1st St. NE and Constitution Ave.

Speakers: Former U.S. Transportation Secretary Ray LaHood

Jay Timmons, National Association of Manufacturers

Terry O’Sullivan, Laborers’ International Union of North America

10:00am-4:00pm Capitol Hill meetings scheduled as part of Infrastructure Week

Attendees depart for airport at the conclusion of their meetings

This CSG policy academy is made possible through the generous support of the American Society of Civil Engineers, Nissan and UPS.

