
PARTICIPANT BIOGRAPHIES

Anastasia Parnham Campbell, Legislative Attorney, Office of Legal Services, General Assembly, Tennessee
(615) 741-6228 | anastasia.campbell@capitol.tn.gov

Anastasia Campbell has worked as a legislative attorney for the Office of Legal Services (OLS) at the Tennessee General Assembly for nine years staffing various committees, including the Senate Commerce and Labor Committee and the House Judiciary Committee. During her tenure as the Senate Commerce and Labor Committee attorney, she has worked on legislation involving insurance, telecommunications, workers' compensation, and regulated professions. In addition to her committee assignments, she also mentors new attorneys within the office and serves as lead attorney on various drafting manuals published by OLS. Prior to joining OLS, Anastasia taught legal research and writing for Kaplan University. She also served as a law clerk for Justice Gorman Houston on the Alabama Supreme Court. Anastasia received her law degree from the University of Alabama School of Law.

Craig Foster, Policy Analyst, Research Division, House of Representatives, Georgia
(404) 656-7881 | craig.foster@house.ga.gov

Craig Foster was born and raised in Dallas, Georgia. After introductory courses at Georgia Southern University, Craig secured a bachelor's degree in political science and biology from Georgia State University. In 2005, he was hired by the Research Division of the Georgia House of Representatives as a policy analyst. In this capacity, Craig staffs the House Insurance Committee, a committee he has staffed since 2006. In addition, Craig also staffs the House Governmental Affairs Committee, Motor Vehicles Committee and the Industry and Labor Committee.

Kristen L. Harris, Staff Attorney/Legislative Analyst, Legislative Services Office, North Carolina
(919) 733-2578 | Kristen.Harris@ncleg.net

Kristen Harris joined the Legislative Analysis Division at the North Carolina General Assembly as a non-partisan staff attorney in February 2015. Her areas of concentration are property and casualty insurance and judiciary committee work. Prior to joining the public sector, Kristen practiced civil litigation for 11 years representing clients in general liability matters throughout North Carolina. Raised in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Kristen received her Bachelor of Arts in English with a minor in women's studies from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She graduated from Wake Forest University School of Law in 2003.

Amy Jo Johnson, Senior Staff Attorney, Legislative Drafting, North Carolina
(919) 733-6660 | AmyJo.Johnson@ncleg.net

Originally from Iowa, Amy Jo has an undergraduate degree in Sociology from Grinnell College in Grinnell, Iowa. She later attended the evening program at North Carolina Central University School of Law. She has been working for the state of North Carolina since 2005, specifically for Disability Determination Services, a division within the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services. In 2010, she began work as a nonpartisan staff attorney for the General Assembly with the Legislative Analysis Division and transferred to the Legislative Drafting Division in 2016. Her primary areas of concentration are health insurance and the state health plan, the state retirement systems, and Medicaid.

PARTICIPANT BIOGRAPHIES (continued)

David Marcase, Attorney, House Insurance Committee, Louisiana
(225) 342-2379 | marcased@legis.la.gov

David Marcase is a staff attorney for the Louisiana House Committee on Insurance, where his primary duties are researching and drafting proposed legislation as requested by members of the House. He received his J.D. from Mississippi College School of Law in 1993. David also has a master's degree in history from LSU and a bachelor's degree in history from Louisiana College. Prior to working for the Louisiana House of Representatives, he was in private practice, with a concentration on insurance defense. He also has served as general counsel for The Cottonport Bank, and was an associate professor of history at Louisiana College in Pineville, Louisiana, from 2001-2007. David has been employed by the Louisiana Legislature since 2013.

Andrea Merten, Staff Attorney, House of Representatives, Oklahoma
(405) 557-7385 | Andrea.Merten@okhouse.gov

Andrea Merten attended Middle Tennessee State University for undergrad and Oklahoma City University for law school. She interned in the Tennessee House of Representatives while in undergrad and for the Oklahoma House of Representatives while in law school. She continued on with the Oklahoma House of Representatives immediately after graduating from law school and passing the bar. She has six years of experience in legislative issues relating to insurance, county and municipal government, agriculture and wildlife and veterans.

Franklin Munyan, Senior Attorney, Division of Legislative Services, Virginia
(804) 786-3591 ext. 227 | fmunyan@dls.virginia.gov

Franklin Munyan received both a bachelor's degree in history and a law degree from the University of Virginia. He has served as a staff attorney with the Virginia Division of Legislative Services since 1991, where he currently is assigned to the House and Senate Commerce and Labor Committees. His duties include drafting legislation for the Virginia General Assembly that deals with insurance, utility regulation, business entities, commerce and trade regulation, workers' compensation, unemployment insurance, labor and employment, and energy policy.